Hana Mihon

We got a call from Ms. Hana Mihon (000-0000-0000) at 09:00 a.m. on Wednesday, December xx 20xx. Below is the summery of her statement.

“I called you because I got a message from my daughter last night, through my ex-husband. You are working on the inheritance from John Dou, correct? I live at the house my mother left for me (0-0-0 Sample, Sample-ku, Tokyo). After I got divorced, I had lived in Osaka, which was near my daughter's house. I had rent out this house to others while I was in Osaka. But just a while ago, I came back to this address. My ex-husband does not know it even though we live close by each other.”

“I talked about this with my friend I was advised that I should verify if the inheritance includes any debts. I don't think John was such kind of a person. But I'd like to make sure what they are.”

“Another thing I'm concerned is the language. I don't speak English at all. And don't know any translator. So, in order to proceed with this matter I need a support of foreign language.”
